

December 14, 2007

Bus Eireann shelter review to take place in North Dublin –
Kennedy

New shelter sought for Murtagh's Pub, Lusk

BUS EIREANN is to undertake a survey of its bus shelter location and will consider providing a shelter near Murtagh's Pub in Lusk, reveals Fianna Fail's North Dublin Deputy Michael Kennedy.

Deputy Kennedy said: "I recently enquired into the possibility of Bus Eireann installing a bus shelter at Murtagh's Pub in Lusk. There is currently a bus stop at this location but this is an isolated and exposed area and waiting passengers are forced to wait in all types of weather."

"I have been informed by Bus Eireann that a private advertising agency maintains the shelters in exchange for the revenue derived from leasing of advertising space."

"I can confirm that the advertising company is currently conducting a review of all bus stops and has been instructed to give special consideration to providing a shelter at this location in Lusk."

"I welcome any plans to improve the facilities provided to Bus Eireann customers, and will be keeping in close contact with the CIE over this issue," Deputy Kennedy said.